Long Beach Transit To Host Community Meeting Regarding Passport Route Public Invited to Discuss Restructuring of Route

In February 2016, Long Beach Transit (LBT) plans to implement a restructuring of the Passport route, the complimentary circulator operating in the downtown Long Beach business districts and along the waterfront. The restructuring aims to increase ridership, better connect popular destinations and contribute to the success of the local economy.

The community is invited to attend a community meeting hosted by Long Beach Transit regarding the restructuring of the route.

WHEN: Saturday, December 5, 2015 10 a.m. – Noon

WHERE: International Elementary School (Auditorium) 700 Locust Avenue, Long Beach, CA 90813

BUS: Take bus routes: Passport, 1, 46, 51, 91, 94, 172, 173

PARKING: On-street Neighborhood Parking

Spanish translation will be available at the meeting. Questions regarding the meeting can be addressed by calling Long Beach Transit customer service at (562) 591-2301.
